REPORTS OF PROGRAMMES ORGANIZED FOR IMPARTING ETHICAL & MORAL VALUES TO STUDENTS & STAFF IN THE LAST 5 YEARS

The academic and non-academic activities of the year demonstrate that all the departments were instrumental and intentional in providing professional guidance, direction, advisement, and mentoring for students that resulted in student engagement through educational, social and extension services and responsive activities. Events that foster morals, values and ethics are part of our code of conduct. We strongly believe that such programmes impart moral education to students and thereby helps in promoting students' moral development and character formation. Some of the events organized from 2016 are highlighted here.

Independence Day

The Independence Day was celebrated on 15 August 2016 at the college campus and our students took pride in glorifying and celebrating the spirit of unity and brotherhood. The event began at 8:30 am with the hoisting of the Indian National Flag by our Principal Dr Sherly P Anand followed by the National Anthem. The Chief Guest of the day was Jiji, Circle of Women's Cell, Kollam. She inspired the students with an illuminating speech and urged them to utilize our freedom and choices in the best possible way.

Teacher's Day

Teacher's Day is celebrated on 5thSeptember every year on the occasion of the birth anniversary of India's second President, Dr. Sarvepalli Radhakrishnan;Dr. Sarvepalli Radhakrishnan was of the opinion that "teachers should be the best minds in the country". On every September 5, Teacher's Day is celebrated all over India as an occasion to appreciate and acknowledge the efforts and hard work of our teachers in making us sophisticated and responsible individuals. This year our college celebrated the day by honouring the former teachers of our college. We believe that such a gesture will instill values, morals and respect for the older generation among the youth.

Invited Talk on Sree Narayana Guru's Philosophy as part of Birth Anniversary Celebrations

As part of Sree Narayana Guru Jayanthy, the Sree Narayana Study Centre of our college organized an Invited Talk on "The Relevance of the Philosophy of Sree Narayana Guru in the Modern world" in collaboration with the Narayana Philosophy Society (NPHIL) on 26 September 2016. The keynoter was Sri Sujith Sivanand, Chief Collaborator, NPHIL Canada. Dr. Sabu, Retired Professor, CET, Thiruvananthapuram also delivered an elaborate talk about the life and teachings of the great Guru.

Bharanabhasa- Maathrubhasa day

The day of formation of Kerala - 1 November 2016 (Keralapiravidinam) was celebrated as Bharanabhasa- Maathrubhasa day by the college. In association with that programme our music club celebrated the day through music and dance performances. Songs from films which glorifies the greatness of Kerala and poems were sung by the club members. There were also dance performances by our students on “Keranirakaladum”.

Founder's Day

The Sree Narayana College for Women Kollam owes its existence to 'the Invincible Soul'- Sri R. Sankar whose vision was education for all -irrespective of caste, creed, religion or class. The Founders' Day which falls on the 7th of November every year is traditionally a very important day in the college calendar when members of the college and management meet to commemorate Sri R Sankar who founded our institution and have bequeathed resources to its development. This year our Chief Guest was the Honourable Minister Mercykutty Amma who elaborated on the contributions made by Sri R. Sankar in various fields of activity.

Student representatives from all disciplines delivered a speech on the significance of the day. The students of our college sang many patriotic songs that awakened everyone's feelings towards our Mother Land. At the end sweets were distributed to the students.

Founders Day Observance and Commemoration on 7 November 2019

On 7 November 2019, our college celebrated its Founders' Day. It was a time to reflect on our institution's past and thankfully remember all those who have helped to shape who we are, and to acknowledge the community members, both past and present, who have influenced the character and values that embody the vibrant, engaging, and safe environment we see today. Our Principal Dr. K. Anirudhan conveyed that as we commemorate each year about the contributions made by our ancestors, we too will be remembered by our future generations for all the hard work and efforts we put in. With over fifty special guests attending the meeting, it was a wonderful opportunity to share the achievements of the past and deliberate on the choices that shape our future.

Republic Day 2019

Our college celebrated the 70th Republic Day with our Principal Dr. K. Anirudhan hoisting the National Flag on the campus. He paid tributes to the freedom fighters who brought independence and prepared the Constitution that guides us to function as a secular, democratic and republic nation. The keynote address of the principal was followed by a department level march-past competition organized by the Department of Physical Education of our college. Fifteen teams from the various departments participated in the event. The departments of English, Geography and Botany secured the first, second and third prizes respectively in the competition.

Orientation class for teachers as part of Teacher's Day

As part of Teacher's Day celebrations, the IQAC of our college organized an Orientation class for teachers on "Better the Best Teacher" by Dr. Jaya Verma, Assistant Professor and Certified SST, CVR College Hyderabad on 27th September 2019. The keynoter reshaped our insights about teaching-learning process, and inspired us to think beyond the realms of our own subjects and specializations and explore new vistas of teaching and research.

She also highlighted on the role teachers have to play in the holistic development of a student. This involves not only imparting knowledge, competencies and skills, but also counseling, developing innovative thinking, engaging them in research, consultancy and extension work, besides preparing instructional materials with the aid of educational and information technologies.

The orientation session helped teachers to adapt to the new trends and tendencies in the field of education and emerge with a better version of oneself as an employee, professional colleague, a member of the social milieu and a community member.

2020-2021

The pandemic has completely altered the course of our lives. Despite all the challenges brought in by the pandemic, our college has closely followed its ethics and code of conduct. With this view we have organized a host of programmes that serves to inculcate values among our student community and that too via online mode.
