Across India there is evidence of the increasing dimensions of dowry as an essential basis of match making, and in Kerala too there is a sharp visibility of curse of dowry demand and dowry death. It is ironic that in India dowry was originally designed to safeguard the woman and it was the provision of “Streedhan”. Presided over by the Principal Dr.Nisha.J.Tharayil, the webinar was attended by honourable chief guest Adv.M.S.Thara, member of Kerala Women’s Commission and Adv. Bechi Krishna, Lawyer of Kottarakara Family court and over 180 students from various departments. webinar was coordinated by Dr. Silpa Sasankan, Assistant Professor of Department of Commerce and Co-ordinator of Women’ s Study Unit.
